
3. PROPOSED STUDY IN TRINITY COLLEGE DUBLIN

Please list the specific subjects in which you wish to follow modules (i.e. Music, Italian, Classics, English, Chemistry, Sociology, etc). You should list at least two, but no more than four subjects. You should not list Broad Curriculum modules here (see note 4).

- 1) 3)
2) 4)

If there are any particular modules which you are required to follow by your home institution in order to receive credit for your study at Trinity College Dublin, indicate them here and include their module codes (see note 5):

.....

It is important that you list modules (and module codes) you would like to take as this will give Schools/Departments an indication of your particular interests. Please note that acceptance of your application does not necessarily guarantee acceptance into any particular module (see note 5).

Notes on Completion of Application Form

1. The closing date for receipt of applications for admission in September is 1st March. Before completing the application form, please consult the "Module Directory" for Visiting & Erasmus Students <http://www.tcd.ie/study/non-eu/study-abroad/to-trinity/EU%20Exchanges/ModuleDirectory/index.php> and ensure that you have understood the information concerning admission and study programme.

You will be assessed on the basis of your Trinity College Dublin application form and supporting documentation. PLEASE DO NOT FORWARD ANY OTHER APPLICATION FORM OR DOCUMENTATION, EXCEPT AS REQUESTED. Please ensure you complete all sections and use BLOCK CAPITALS.

2. Please include your full postal address and a contact name. Please also provide your home address.
3. You must provide evidence of your English language competence. A letter from your coordinator within Moscow State University is sufficient.
4. Please use the names of the subjects (i.e. Philosophy, Geography, French, History, Political Science, etc.) you would like to study.
5. Please note that acceptance of your application does not necessarily guarantee acceptance into any particular module. You will not, in any case, finalise your module choices until after you have arrived, enrolled and met with an academic member of staff in the department(s) into which you have been accepted.
6. Please read the section on the Student Health Service/Medical Insurance on our website: <http://www.tcd.ie/study/non-eu/study-abroad/to-trinity/erasmus/Preparation/> Please note that the university declines all responsibility for costs of hospitalisation or medical treatment arising during your period of study and that evidence of medical insurance may be required.

It is the university's policy to facilitate students with physical disabilities as far as possible, but you should note that not all parts of the campus are suitable for such students. If you need further information, please write to the International Admissions Office giving details of your disability and of the Schools or Departments in which you wish to follow modules.

7. The standard requirement for EU/Non EU Visiting Students is a minimum of 45 ECTS credits per Academic Year, which equates to 15 ECTS credits per term. In exceptional circumstances, a student taking anything less than what is compulsory will need an official letter from their Home University stating the reason for not taking the required amount of credit
